

Curriculum of the Home

Here are some things that can help create a more productive and stimulating home environment for your students:

- Have informed conversations about school and daily events
- Encouragement and discussion of leisure reading
- Guiding, monitoring and discussing peer activities and screen time
- Focus on intermediate and long term goals
- Get involved with activities as a family
- Have fun together